THE OYSTER SEASON .- This is very pro Maryland the law allows the taking of oys-ters from the hads on the 1st, but in Vir-ginia it's the 15th. Everything points to an the oysters from the Northern waters at the beginning of the season are of a better flavor beginning of the season are of a better havor than those of the South and are fatter, but when the season advances the conditions charge and the Southern oyster takes the lead. Oysters have many names. In one stream we get at least fifty names, and all from the same bed. Saddle Rocks are about out of the market, though every big, fat oys out of the market, inough every og, latoys ter is called a Saddle-Rock. The Cherry Stones are also very scarce. A big demand is made for them and they are not given a chance to breed, consequently they soon become exhausted. Lynn Haven is a popular oxeter, and its flavor is simply delicious. The oxeters now coming in are principally them. Not have the restaurant keep. rom Norfo k. Most of the restaurant keep ers of the city have made preparations for serving oysters, and it is thought that the will now change off, and instead of supplying his best girl with the insidious ice cream he will cause her mouth to water at the mention of "half a dozen fried," or a nice

Miss Annie Hayes is seriously ill at her home on Wolfe street.

TAKING DUE PRECAUTION .- The large growd of negroes composing the excursion to Leonardtown yesterday on the steamer John W. Thompson bid fair when the boat left Washington to prove an exceedingly disorderly one, and upon arriving here, after a lodge called the "Sons of Canaan" had been taken aboard, the captain proceed ed to a store and purchased seven revolver and an ampie supply of cartridges, which he distributed among his officers and crew who were instructed to use them in case of The boisterous excursionists, or the majority of them, had their passions cooled somewhat by witnessing the captain's action though one passionate individual kept up his rowdyism until he was finally pitched ashore here, after which the steamer proceeded down the river. While pistols and razors were occasionally brandished, no serious disorder occurred, though had the officers been unarmed and not determined men there is no telling what would have happened, as it is more than probable that many who were aboard had determined before starting to make the boat a floating pandemonium by their buffoonry and ferocity.

ROBBERY.-Mr. Michael Rupple, who lives near Cameron Mills, in Fairfax county, was in the city to day, and reported tha during his absence from home yesterday his house was entered through a window and robbed of a watch and a set of studs and $450 in money, all of which were in the pockets of his pantaloons, which were hang ing up in the room. He said he was at work on the roof of a house not far from his home, and when he returned in the evening he perceived his loss. He notified the police to be on the lookout for the lost arti-

A Correction.—The row on Saturday Wright, in which the latter was injured, did not occur at Mr. Burroughs' store as stated. Mr. Burroughs' place had been closed two hours previous to the row, and he knew nothing of the affair until called up by a gentleman passing, who asked him to tele-phone police headquarters, his being the only telephone in the neighborhood. Burroughs' store is one of the most orderly kept in the city and noisy people do not frequent the premises.

CATCHING CRABS AT GLYMONT .- A number of fishermen enjoyed the day at Gly-mont Sunday. Rock fish were biting at live bait, and a large number of small fish were caught oil the wharf by the children, who used clams and worms for bait. There was also a large number of crabs caught off the wharf. The presence of crabs so far from sait water is accounted for by fishermen because of the low water, consequent upon the dry weather of the past few weeks.

STRAMED OYSTERS.—Messrs. Steuernagel & Zeisse, of the Exchange and Ballard House, north Royal street, have put up a new apparatus for steaming oysters, and intend during the season which is now upon us to serve their customers with the most delicious bivalves that can be procured. As the control of the co STRAMED OYSTERS. - Messis. Steuernagel usual, they will furnish oysters in every style, and still keep up the standard grade of their wines, liquors, lager beer, ale, etc.

DEAD - Mrs. Dora E. Kelly, wife of Mr. G. Frank Kelly, of this city, whose illness was mentioned yesterday, died early this mornat the residence of her brother, Mr. Duff Payne, near Rappahannock station, where she had recently gone on a visit. Mrs. Kelly had been in ill health for some time. Her remains will be interred at her old home, near Bristersburg, in Fauquier county.

RAN INTO HER WHARF .- The steamer Mattano, in making her landing at this city this morning, ran into her wharf and smash-ed in some of her timbers. The damage she sustained did not prevent her proceeding on ry, just received by her trip down the river.
